More focus is being placed on helping students master critical thinking and Empirical/Quantitative skills. To achieve the improvement of students on these skills more exercises and examples are used throughout the course. More practice questions are used during class exercises.

Examples from economic news are used throughout the course. Examples include:

- 1. Discussion of causes of 2022-2023 Inflation
- 2. discussion on the effects of inflation on families, businesses, and the banking sector,
- 3. discussion of fiscal policy during the Covid-19 pandemic
- 4. discussion of Federal Reserve monetary policy.
